Journal of yesterday read and approved, after a discussion as to the manner of placing upon the journal all amendments that may be offered, participated in by Messrs. Tourgee, French, Reid and others.

Mr. French offered a resolution requiring the Clerk to place on the journal all original propositions, except hose adversely reported upon. and amendments, and to this end to give him an assistant at a cost not to exceed $3 per day.

Mr. Justice said he wanted to make a record here for the Republican party against all the actions of this Convention, and hence he wanted the records to show everything transpired.

Messrs. Morehead, from committee on Education, and Durham, from the committee on Taxation, &c., submitted reports. Mr. Boyd, rep., under a question of personal privilege, said the NEWS report had stated that Mr. "Byrd" introduced an amendment yesterday. restricting the power of the Legislature to the making of twelve Judicial Districts, when the same was introduced by himself.

Smyth, col., arose to a question of personal privilege. Several of the newspaper reporters of the city persisted in appending "colored" to his name when "Mr." was applied to other members upon the floor. He "did not see why such privileges should be taken with his name, as he had no particular familiarity with those reporters, and he should like to be treated as other delegates."

A number of ordinances reported from different Committees, referring to amendments already adopted, were laid upon the table.

The resolution to defray the funeral expenses of the late Gov. Wm. A. Graham, delegate elect to this Convention from the county of Orange, was considered.

Mr. Badger stated that the expenses attendant upon the burial of Governor Graham, from the time his remains left Saratoga until they arrived in Raleigh, had been paid by the Virginia Commission, of which he was a member at the time of his death.

Mr. Avera favored the passage of the ordinance as a matter of justice to the whole people of the State.

THE STATE CONSTITUTIONAL Committee, stated the reasons which actuated the Committee in reporting adversely upon this measure that they did not want to see this court made perapatetic in its character. Mr. Durham asked it as a measure of justice to the West, that a term of the Supreme Court be established either in Morganton or Asheville, or to leave this power in the hands of the Legislature.

Mr. Albertson, opposed the measure. The rotation of the Supreme Court would work hardship to persons of almost every section.

After some further discusion, the vote upon the passage of the ordinance upon its second reading was taken, and resulted in 47 ayes, 37 nays. Mr. Bowman, from the Commits

STATE FAIR -We learn that the races at the Fair will be the finest we have ever had. There will be horses here that have won $20,000 purses. It will be one of the few opportunities our people will have to see such horses. The stock will be unusually fair, of the best blood in the land. The display of poultry will be ahead of anything of the kind ever exhibited at our Fair. As people away from Raleigh are taking such an interest in the Fair. will not the good people of Raleigh exort themselves to make a fine display in Floral Hall? Let each one send some piece of their work, or some euriosity. Ladies from all parts of the State have accepted the invitation of the committee to be present and assist. And if these ladies can come without compensation and give their time, and that too, at an expense, surely our Raleigh ladies will not be behind. It is estimated that the Fair is not worth less than $100,-000 to Raleigh annually; then it bethooves us to work for it, independent of the good the State derives from

The public are respectfully invited to attend, and we cheerfully commend this entertainment to our people, as aside from the pleasure to be derived therefrom, an opportunity is afforded to both encour age and help these orphans.

GOODWYN "PURGING" HIMSELF. It was a good idea of Goodwyn, delegate to the Convention from Halifax when he yesterday, in referring to the obligations of the oath he had taken, declared that he did not come here "to purge himself of that oath." Would it not be a good thing for Hal ifax county if he should be purged

A FISH THAT IS A FISH.-Mr. R. H. Bradley, of this city, returned from Beaufort last night, where he has been recruiting for some days past. He sent to our sanctum a drum fish weighing some 40 lbs., for which he will accept our thanks. We tried the fish by a "drum-head" courtmartial, and condemned it to be Mr. Bennett, from the Judicial served up by our landlady.

I have complained so often about the failure of the DAILY NEWS that I feel a delicacy in again complain-ing, but the failures of late are so frequent that the NEWS is almost valueless to me. There was no NEWS eceived at this place on the 11th, 16th or 18th. Three failures in one week is, I think, a want of attention to your subscribers, and it injures your paper. complaints. THE "COLORED" MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION.-We were yesterday apprised by Smyth, the negro delegate to the Convention from New Hanover, that he objected to the word "colored" being appended to his name; that other delegates were styled "Mr." and he did not think he was sufficiently "intimate" with the reporters to allow any liberties to be taken with his name. We were not before aware of the fact that a negro (and a black one at that) objected to being called "colored," but if the delegate persists in his objection to our defining his race upon the floor in that style, we shall do him the justice to call him "black;" but as to his right to demand that we call him "Mr." we emphatically deny, nor shall we so mislead our readers as to the complexion of the members of the Convention who may participate in its proceedings. INSOLENT DEMANDS .- Mr. Justice, the delegate from Rutherford, yesterday in the Convention, in discussing the simple question of correcting the journal (which correction nobody objected to) became wrathy, and declared his intention that such and such a thing should be done, or he would see why. Considering the fact that Mr. Justice was fighting against an imaginary opposition, and that besides he was shooting straws against the wind, we thought his air a little more insolent than the necessities demanded. the Eastern Portion of the State. LITTLETON, N. C., Sept. 17, '75. Messrs. Editors:-It is ardently to be hoped that the Convention will adopt some measure of relief for the Eastern portion of the State. It would be extremely erroneous to suppose that our people did not feel the keenest interest in the proceedings of the Convention by the smallness of the vote east in some pertions of this territory. The fact is, knowing it to be im-

Their white leaders are thus passing them to their own destruction. The writer was a few days ago summoned before a negro magistrate to nswer a charge of beating a laborer, and three negroes summoned as witnocent of the charge, not even having a thought of doing so, but having no vitness it caused some embarrassment as to how to proceed. The negro had absented himself for several lays about the time of the preceeding Superior Court term, fearing an arrest for false swearing in a case in which he was witness previously. It was supposed this fact might be brought to bear. But it was incidentally mentioned in time that he, on the day of the alleged beating, had stated before several persons, that he had not been struck at all. Messrs. ALL the Conventions that have been setting up platforms leave the question of the Presidency more in doubt than before. We think that, as the Republican candidate, the omission to name any one, leaves the name of Grant the most prominent, and at the same time the weakest. He alone controls any strength, and at the same time heads a party so full of the elements of defeat that he is compelled to go down with it.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAIL

The South has rights which have never been pressed, and which are like to be swallowed up by the rapacious demands of Thos. Scott. The South has a claim to an entre-pot both on the Pacific and on the Atlantic. She has twelve States, and lican politicans elsewhere a little wisshe has a population of twelve millions. If Scott's ideas are carried out, the Southern Pacific pours its stores into the Northern States. A diversion is made of the traffic long before it reaches the Mississippi River. Our Congressmen must be on the alert and give us some share of the golden stream. We are entitled to some of its blessings.

THE CONVENTION.

We watch with concern the action of the Convention. We are satisfied that they are acting for the best interests of the State. We are sure that the people will fully endorse the action reducing the number of Supreme Court Judges and also of Superior Court Judges.

These are questions of economy. The people have always demanded them. It was not possible to see why three Judges of the Supreme Court could not do what five had been called upon under the Canby Constitution to do. And it is equally possible to reduce the number of Superior Court Judges. The present requisition upon the Judges to hold their Courts for two weeks is not sustained by necessity. Where a necessity exists, it is met by the authority to hold extra terms.

EULOGIES ON GRAHAM. We have published without hesitation the comments of the friends of W. A. Graham. When we come to those of Mr. Thorne, member of the Convention from Warren, we must stop. He treads upon a path offensive to the living, and disparaging to the dead. And as for Mr. Thorne we have no respect. We do not exclude him as a Republican, as that party has been generous in the extreme, but we have not forgotten the transactions of last winter, when the representative from Warren county appeared in so offensive a character. And his defense of the Anti-Slavery doctrine only makes him the more offensive.

W. N. C. R. R.

We have received an order to stop the News from a former subscriber at Old Fort, whose time is out, because we ventured an expression of approbation upon the management of the Western North Carolina Rail Road by Maj. W. A. Smith. We part with our subscriber without reluctance. In our expressions of opinion we are independent. Though Maj. Smith is a political opponent, we would not deny him the justice he deserves. We will not sacrifice our independence for party feeling. Our observation of the management of the Road in question was of course a cursory one, but sufficiently accurate to combat the judgment of a correspondent who evidently speaks from personal hostility.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

That we have not over-estimated the force and significance of the election in Maine, says the Petersburg Index-Appeal, will be made apparent from the following comments of the New York Herald, an independent paper of Republican predilictions. If anything, we have rather underrated than overstated the magnitude and meaning of the political revolution in New England. The great change is especially full of significance in that every effort had been made so immediately before, to arouse the Maine people to a terror of Southern Ku-klux. The sanguinary under-garment had been shaken with great vehemence by Mr. Morton and Mr. Blaine, and every other exertion put forward to fire the Northern heart, and fill it with jealousy and hate of the Southern people. All these efforts proved upavailing, and the result was of the highest encouragement to the friends of Democracy and good government throughout the country. The Herald says : "In 1872 Maine gave Gen. Grant over thirty-two thousand majority; in 1874 the Republicans elected Dingley Governor by over eleven thousand majority. On Monday the Republican majority was whittled down to less than five thousand, according to the reports at hand as we write; and this in spite of the most vigorous efforts of leading and prominent men, like Blaine and Morton, the former speaking in his own State, and to his own people, who are personally attached to him. "Evidently the speeches did not hit the mark. Why? On the financial issue the people are certainly of the same mind with Mr. Blaine. Both parties in Maine favor specie payments. Where they disagree with the leader they are proud of it on the question of the "bloody-shirt." Mr. Blaine, it is said, sent for Senator Morton to shout "Murder!" in the Maine woods; but the people were not scared; even the ex-Speaker could not frighten them. Perhaps this will teach some of the repubdom. The Northern people seem to have made up their minds that the war is now finally over; that the negro has had, on the whole a very fair chance, and must henceforth take care of himself; that he is abundantly able to do so, and only needs to be let alone to get on as well as anybody else. "The Maine Telection, following ne democratic victory in California, s disheartening to the republicans. Its effect will be felt in Ohio, Pennsylvania and this State. The people are tired of old cries and of appeals to their fear of the democratic party. The elections this fall cannot be carried by the beatings of gongs. That begins to be very plain."

WE have received a circular signed by prominent Democrats of Craven county, appealing on the part of the Democrats of the East to the Convention now in session. The appeal is for relief from the odious system of Magistracy now oppressing that section. It is a rule of ignorance—perhaps worse, from which an intelligent people should be reieved. The Convention has under consideration the question of the appointment of Magistrates, and the restoration of the old County Court system. With so much wisdom as there is in the Convention, we will venture no suggestion beyond that of a consideration for the welfare of a people who feel themselves degraded by the operations of the present Constitution. They do want relief and they ask it at the hands of the Convention. EXPENSIVE BIRD BOXES .- A correspondent of the New York Sun writing from Harrisburg, Pa., says: "The committee that is seeking to investigate the Treasury has unearthed some rather peculiar items from Mackey's books. One item gives the uformation that $1,900 was paid for a door to Governor Hartranft's stable On another page of the book we are gravely informed that one hundred bird boxes were put up in the State Capitol grounds for $2,500. But each pigeon hole is counted a box, and there are one hundred of these in all the bird houses perched on long poles about the grounds. Therefore each pigeon-hole, or bird box, as the books style them cost the State $25, while each is really worth no more than thirty or forty cents, or perhaps less. Some $2,300 or $2,400 has been realized by some one from this source

The fashionable people of Louisville, Ky., habitually go to the theatre only on Friday nights. So fixed has this usage become that on this one evening of every week the house will not hold all who come, and on others it is nearly empty. That is not a profitable custom for the manager, and during the season he will endeavor to break it up by calling the favored occasions "popular nights for the people," and reducing the prices of admission.

From the Memphis Appeal. Ames, of Mississippi.

Since the people of Arkansas got rid of the blithing curse of Clayton's rule, everything is tranquilized. Since the State of Texas passed into the hands of the Democrats every-thing is quiet. There is no State in the Union so prosperous as Texas. Such would be the condition of Mississippi were it not for the rule of the infamous Ames. He said last Summer that the killing of twenty or thirty negroes would be of service to the Republican party, and be is doing everything in his power to have the requisite number of negoes killed to subserve party purposes. Ames, who has not been in the State more than a few weeks during the last six months, sends a whining letter to the President asking for Federal troops to preserve the peace. The President, if he docs his duty, will administer a sharp rebuke gubernatorial humbug. The law-lessness which has unfortunately prevailed in Mississippi, is to be attributed in no small degree to the covert encouragement it receives from this man Ames, in order to make party capital. A prominent official of the State, and a Republican, too, has publicly announced he is willing to make oath that Ames expressed the wish 'a dozen niggers were slaughtered,' for the party consequence it would entail little doubt that this is true, and just as little that the Clinton slaughter was just what Ames wanted. How is it that Mississippi is exceptional in this cord of things, if it is not that the Governor is utterly worthless as an Executive; if, indeed, he is not criminally responsible for the lawlessness which is disgracing one State of the Union ?"

THE ORIGINATOR OF THE BOWLE KNIFE.-The New Orleans Times notes the recent death in that city of the widow of that renowned fighter, Rezin Bowie, the brother of the fam ous James Bowie, whos name was bestowed on that fearful instrument known as the Bowie knife. After a life of startling adventures and innumerable bloody combats, James Bowie fell at the Alamo in the Texas war of 1836, with his Bowie knife clinched in his right hand, and the gory victims of bis valor and h! prowess strewed around him. He fell with Travis, Crockett and others at the head of the small body of Texans who defended that fort against the whole force of Santa Anna's army. The others of the slain defended themselves with guns and pistols Bowie, however preferred his favorrite and trusty knife, and it was said that a dozen slaughtered Mexicans attested its efficiency. Bezin Bowie was, as well as his brother, a repreentative man of his era. They were both utterly insensible to fear: but though always fighting to the death, hey were not usually aggressive, but generally managed to place themselves in defensive attitudes in all their quarrels. The invention of the Bowie knife and its adoption in personal combats was justified by them on the ground that it made combats more terrible and decisive and thereby prevented the frequency of duels and other less decisive modes of settling personal quarrels.

THIS.—The New York World does the poor Vice President very sharply. in the following paragraph: "Vice-President Wilson cultivates the arts of popularity as constantly as Cincinnatus cultivated cabbages, and we can hardly say that we are surprised to learn that he recently took the high moral ground of paying his fare in a Brooklyn horse car. He bad, in fact, paid it before his identity was discovered by the conductor, who immediately came and engaged the distinguished but tedious statesman in the toils of amicable speech, striving to persuade him to take back the five cents. But it was unavailing. He always paid his fare, he said, and was opposed to dead-heading. And with this stur on the Administration and the consciousness of five cents' worth of rectitude under his waistcoat he disappears in the midst of the local onicle and fades over the horizon of Bay Ridge."

SOMETHING LIKE SARCASM ABOUT

The Raymond (Miss.) Gazette speaking of the Clinton riot, says there were probably a thousand no gro women there, and perhaps five hundred negrochildren. There were hundreds of mules and horses hitched under the adjacent trees, and wag ons and buggies innumerable. Such a scampering we never before witnessed-such a howling and such horrid imprecations we never before heard, and such vindictiveness and hostility to the whites as was exhibited by the tongues of the negro women, we had not supposed existed in the human heart. Had the negro women been armed, not a white man would have escaped to tell the story of the affair."

The following explains the general term car-load: Seventy barrels of salt, 70 of lime, 90 of flour, 60 of whiskey, 200 sacks of flour, 6 cords of soft wood, 18 to 20 head of cattle, 50 to 60 head of hogs, 80 to 100 sheep, 9,000 feet of solid boards, 17,000 feet of siding, 14,000 feet of flooring, 40,000 shingles, one half less of hard lumber, one-fourth less of green lum-ber, one-tenth of joint, scautling, and all other large timber, 340 bushels of wheat, 890 of corn, 680 of oats, 400 of barley, 350 of flaxseed, 360 cf Irish potatoes, 360 of sweet potatoes, 1,000 bushels of bran. A heavy box car weighs about 10,000 pounds.

PARIS GOSSIP.-A Paris correspondent gossips: General Sickles frives out in his American coupe, and pays no attention to the heat. Washburne, our minister, has a beautiful villa at Montmorency, where his family are passing the summer; his third son, Pitt, has just passed his preliminary examination iere in the medical school. Thomas Dudley, formerly consul at Liverpool is at the hotel du Rouvre with his family. The beautiful Neilson is ill in Paris, at the Hotel de l' Athence; mental trouble is the cause, here lord and master, Mr. Lee having left for parts unknown.

Foley's statue of Stonewall Jackson was removed from the Customhouse at Baltimore on Monday, and ship ped, via the Powhattau Steamboat Company, to Richmond. Under the revised revenue tariff it passes thro'gh the Customhouse free of duty, and no charge is made by the Powhattan Company for its transportation to Richmond.

A Providence lad was out horseback riding the other day, when a tramp jumped out and seized her She responded with successive blows of her riding whip, so heartily laid on that the highwayman was glad to let go.

Mr. Jefferson Davis was taken quite ill after he arrived at Kansas City, owing to his unusual efforts while in a delicate state of health. He received invitations to speak at fifteen different places while in Kansas City, but declined them all.

Mr. Moody begins work here some what as he did abroad, in a retired corner, holding his first services in his native town of Northfield, Mass. He preached his first sermon there lately, taking the church steps for his pulpit, as his congregation of seven or eight hundred, coming in from the surrounding country, was far larger than the pews would hold. His address from Acts xi.14: "Who shall tell the words whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved?" is described as having been a very practical one, in which the danger of living an indifferent life was foreibly pointed out. He is reported to have talken in very plain language, and intimated that there were many persons in Northfield and towns about there who needed to reform their ways. Mr. Moody is soon to commence, if he has not already com-menced a series of meetings in that region and will be assisted not only by Mr. Sankey but also by Messrs Bliss and Sankey, the evangelists from the West. the two lay
